- Religious leaders or faith communities offering spiritual guidance
- Legal professionals providing expert advice
- Counselors or therapists specializing in family and juvenile issues
- Support groups for families facing similar challenges

Such networks not only provide information but also foster a sense of belonging and hope.

prayer for my son in trouble with the law: Jesus My Son Mary Bailey, 2012-01-12 Did Mary keep a journal? We know she kept one in her heart, but what if she had only written her account of the activities of her sons ministry? What insights might we gain through her conversations with the weary travelers who stopped at the carpentry shop to discuss Jesus actions? Through Mary's conversations with the people who received some of these miracles, we are given a new point of view of the environment at that time, and the background of the people involved. Were the scribes and Pharisees, and even Jesus brothers, justified in their condemnation of Jesus teaching? Did Mary ever doubt her sons actions even though she knew He was conceived by the Holy Spirit? Her journal entries provide possible answers to questions often asked of Jesus ministry. Mary even introduces a few new miracles that were not included in the scriptures. As John tells us in 21:25, And there are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they were written in detail, I suppose that even the world itself would not contain the books that would be written. This heartwarming rendition of Jesus ministry through the eyes of His mother provides a fresh perspective to some very old stories.

prayer for my son in trouble with the law: Lord, Grab Me by One Hand! Esther Ok-Ja Lee, Jonah Deok-Bong Chang, 2010-10 Mrs. Lee paints the reality of ministry and the hard life of pastors' widows in this book from the perspectives of a pastor's wife who observed the joy and sorrow of ministry up close, a pastor herself who overcame the pain of being alone and experienced ministry, and a representative of pastors' widows who informs them of their mission and sponsors them. –Rev. Hyun-Gyoon Shin, President, the Evangelization of Korea Movement Headquarters I came to know the passionate activities of Mrs. Lee through Fruit of Adversity in Kook Min Daily. It is a glorious and precious thing that pastors' widows are trying hard to carry out the unfinished mission left by their late pastor husbands. I still vividly remember how she knocked on the door of heaven in prayer, like Jacob who wrestled with the angel of God throughout the night. –Dr. David Yonggi Cho, Senior Pastor, Yoido Full Gospel Church Mrs. Lee was once a member of my church. In spite of her husband's abrupt death, she raised up her four children in such a way that her example has been a great encouragement to those who are in a similar situation. –Dr. Billy Jang Hwan Kim, President, Far East Broadcasting Company Since the death of her husband, Mrs. Lee has been praying to God to open the gates of heaven consistently and expecting the heaven-sent rain. That's why her past days are so priceless. I sincerely hope that the reality of the Korean Church would receive new light through this book, and the Korean Church's interest in pastors' widows would be aroused. I heartily recommend this book. –Rev. Jung Pyo Lee, Senior Pastor, Han Shin Church prayer for my son in trouble with the law: Cultivating Charismatic Power Tiffany Cone, 2018-05-08 Islam and China are topics of relevance and contention in today's economic, political and religious climate. In this work, Tiffany Cone makes an important contribution to these contemporary discourses through an ethnographic case study of Islamic leadership and the cultivation of charismatic power by Sufi disciples at a shrine site in Northwest China. Though this volume focuses on a specific religious community, it carries valuable insights into religious unity, syncretism and religious legitimacy, materialism and religious integrity, and the stability of religious institutions in light of rapid economic growth. Cultivating Charismatic Power speaks to global concerns about the rise of a militant Islam and an increasingly aggressive Chinese State. As such, it will appeal to scholars and practitioners across a range of fields including anthropology, philosophy, religious studies, Islamic Studies, and Chinese Studies.

Foundational figures in feminist biblical studies work alongside new voices and contributors from a multitude of disciplines in conversations with the Bible that go well beyond the expected canon-within-the-canon assumed to be of interest to feminist biblical scholars. Moving beyond the limits of a text-orientated model of reading, this collection looks at how biblical texts were actualized in the lives of religious revolutionaries, such as Joanna Southcott or Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz. It charts the politics of the Pauline veil in the self-understanding of Europe and reads the 'genealogical halls' in the book of Chronicles alongside acts of commemoration and forgetting in 9/11 and Tiananmen Square.
