The Transformation Begins

In her late teens, Norma Jeane began working in a munitions factory during World War II, where she was first discovered by a photographer. Written and updated by a Pulitzer Prize nominee who has authored works on JFK, J. Edgar Hoover, and the 9/11 attacks, this investigation of an iconic star's brief life and early death is "remarkable. . . . The ghost of Marilyn Monroe cries out in these pages" (The New York Times). the life of marilyn monroe: The Secret Life of Marilyn Monroe J. Randy Taraborrelli, 2009-08-25 From New York Times bestselling author J. Randy Taraborrelli comes the definitive biography of the most enduring icon in popular American culture. When Marilyn Monroe became famous in the 1950s, the world was told that her mother was either dead or simply not a part of her life. However, that was not true. In fact, her mentally ill mother was very much present in Marilyn's world and the complex family dynamic that unfolded behind the scenes is a story that has never before been told...until now. In this groundbreaking book, Taraborrelli draws complex and sympathetic portraits of the women so influential in the actress' life, including her mother, her foster mother, and her legal guardian. He also reveals, for the first time, the shocking scope of Marilyn's own mental illness, the identity of Marilyn's father and the half-brother she never knew, and new information about her relationship with the Kennedy's-Bobby, Jack, and Pat Kennedy Lawford. Explosive, revelatory, and surprisingly moving, this is the final word on the life of one of the most fascinating and elusive icons of the 20th Century.

the life of marilyn monroe: Norma Jean Fred Lawrence Guiles, 2020-04-28 Marilyn Monroe remains the most provocative female legend of the twentieth century. What you may have known about her before was only the tip of the iceberg. For twenty years, the men and women who knew Marilyn best saw what they knew suppressed because certain important people were still living, and the tenor of the times prohibited frankness. Instead, rumors ballooned. This book finally sets the record straight. Fred Guiles—whom Norman Mailer acknowledges as the chief source of fact about Marilyn—has written the life behind the legend. He reveals what really happened in the careening career of the pretty waif named Norma Jean Mortensen, who married the boy next door, became a model, an actress, movie star, married an incompatible legend named Joe DiMaggio, sought to improve the mind that came with her near-perfect body, married playwright Arthur Miller, lent herself to the Svengalilike ministrations of Paula and Lee Strasberg, became the mistress of John and then Robert Kennedy when they ran the country, kept camera crews and studios waiting—but not death, which took her under the most unusual circumstances by the age of thirty-six. A legend, by definition, is unaltered by fact, but the enthralled reader will find the revelations in this book no deterrent to the love of Marilyn Monroe by understanding at last what happened to the Queen of Need. Among the people interviewed for this book are Arthur Miller; James E. Dougherty, her first husband; Frank Taylor, the producer of The Misfits; Lee Strasberg; Otto Preminger; Billy Wilder; Joshua Logan and John Huston.

the life of marilyn monroe: The Many Lives of Marilyn Monroe Sarah Churchwell, 2005-01-10 This investigation into the debates surrounding Marilyn Monroe's life and the cultural attitudes that her legend reveals relies on the unreliable and unverifiable—but highly significant—stories that have framed the greatest Hollywood legend.

the life of marilyn monroe: Legend Fred Lawrence Guiles, 1991 The definitive biography.--Los Angeles Times the life of marilyn monroe: Formerly Known As Marilyn Monroe Angela Heffner, 2016-04-25 Very few people were willing to accept the Los Angeles County Coroner ruling of Probable Suicide in the death of Marilyn Monroe. The cover-up was so painfully obvious that it begged the public to ask more questions. Investigative Journalists of every variety, family and friends of Marilyn's, distant colleagues and even some fans have researched the life and death of Marilyn Monroe. Three separate lineages of Angela Jean Heffner point to her past life as Marilyn Monroe. Using the details found in her family heritage, Angela replaces the deliberately told lie that Marilyn's mother (Gladys) allowed to be recorded on Norma Jeane's birth certificate regarding her biological father and also the lies recorded on Marilyn Monroe's death certificate (regarding the date and cause of death) with irrefutable truth. The soul that was Marilyn Monroe received a new life which not only includes past life memories and the physical likeness of Marilyn, but also tamper-proof details like common ancestry. Angela's mother is half-Gifford. (Norma Jeane/Marilyn's biological father's name was C. Stanley Gifford) Angela was born with the last name of the man who says he wants to spend eternity interred next to Marilyn Monroe (Hugh Hefner) and a third family lineage indirectly points back to the man who strategized the death of Marilyn Monroe. Angela begins her book by explaining how a certain event in 2013 drove her to finally tell her story. She writes candidly in her memoir of growing up with Marilyn Monroe's thoughts still active inside her and how it created an abundance of havoc as she tried to suppress her knowledge for the sake of her own privacy. Ultimately fate brought Angela to the understanding that this information lived on inside me for a reason and I need to respect it and treat it as a gift. Once she was clear about how to proceed with writing this book, Angela poured her heart out for you, her readers, to examine. Angela dedicates the final three chapters of her book to reassembling factual information into a distinctive and logical explanation regarding the murder of Marilyn Monroe and the coverup that ensued from inside every level of our government. Aside from assembling important details about Marilyn Monroe into an easily digestible fact filled story, this book gives readers genuine reasons to think seriously about the Laws of Attraction, the power of mind-over-matter, a living/interactive Godforce and reincarnation.
