Additionally, we explore how it compares to other New Testament surveys and consider its applicability in contemporary theological education.

Understanding the Scope and Purpose of New Testament Survey Merrill C Tenney

At its core, the New Testament Survey by Merrill C. Tenney functions as an introductory guide to the twenty-seven books of the New Testament. Unlike commentaries that delve deeply into specific passages, this survey offers a panoramic view, helping readers grasp the overarching narrative, historical backgrounds, and key theological motifs. Tenney's expertise as a New Testament scholar, with a focus on Pauline literature and early Christian history, enriches the text with scholarly insights presented in an accessible manner.

One of the defining characteristics of this survey is its balanced approach: it neither oversimplifies the complex theological issues nor overwhelms readers with excessive academic jargon. This makes it particularly well-suited for seminary students, clergy preparing sermons, and lay readers interested in a structured study of the New Testament.

Content Overview and Structural Features

The book is typically organized in a logical sequence, beginning with an introduction to the New Testament as a whole—covering authorship, dating, and historical context—before proceeding to individual books or groups of books. Tenney's methodical treatment includes:

- Historical Context: Situating each book within the socio-political and religious environment of the first century, including Roman imperial influence and Jewish traditions.
- Authorship and Date: Discussing scholarly debates on who wrote each book and when, often presenting multiple viewpoints without dogmatic assertion.
- Literary Genre and Structure: Highlighting the distinctive literary features of the Gospels, Pauline epistles, general epistles, and apocalyptic literature.
- Theological Themes: Drawing attention to central doctrines such as Christology, eschatology, salvation, and ecclesiology as developed in the texts.
- Practical Application: Occasionally suggesting how the teachings or narratives might inform contemporary Christian life and ministry.

This comprehensive structure ensures that readers receive a holistic understanding of the New Testament, bridging ancient contexts with modern relevance.

Academic and Practical Value of Merrill C. Tenney's Survey

The academic rigor combined with readability sets Tenney's New Testament Survey apart from many other introductory texts. While some New Testament surveys prioritize theological reflections or confessional perspectives, Tenney maintains a scholarly neutrality that appeals across denominational lines. This objectivity enhances its credibility as a research tool.

Comparative Analysis with Other New Testament Surveys

When compared to other notable works, such as Robert H. Gundry's "A Survey of the New Testament" or F. F. Bruce's "The New Testament Documents," Tenney's survey offers distinct advantages and limitations:

- Depth vs. Brevity: Tenney strikes a balance between depth and brevity; Gundry's work often provides more detailed exegetical notes, while Tenney keeps discussions concise yet informative.
- Theological Bias: Bruce's writings sometimes lean toward evangelical perspectives, whereas Tenney's tone is more neutral and descriptive.
- Accessibility: Tenney's survey is particularly accessible for readers new to biblical studies, making it a preferred introductory text.

These factors contribute to Tenney's survey being recommended frequently in seminary curricula and Bible college courses.

Strengths and Limitations

While the New Testament Survey Merrill C Tenney offers numerous strengths, it is important to contextualize its usefulness alongside potential shortcomings:

Strengths:

- Comprehensive coverage of New Testament books with scholarly precision.
- Clear explanations of historical and theological contexts.
- Neutral and balanced approach appealing to a broad audience.

Understanding these pros and cons helps users position the survey appropriately within their study regimen.

new testament survey merrill c tenney: The Glory of God Rev'd Dr Graham J Whelan OAM, 2022-01-10 It is difficult for my finite mind even with the glorious guiding of The Holy Spirit - The Eternal Third Person of the Holy Trinity - to clearly define all the attributes of qualities of the Glory of God - The One True God of the Bible. I enclose here and repeat later for emphasis the truth of God's Glory in Heaven. Revelation 4 and Revelation 5:13 1 After this I looked, and there before me was a door standing open in heaven. And the voice I had first heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this." 2 At once I was in the Spirit, and there before me was a throne in heaven with someone sitting on it. 3 And the one who sat there had the appearance of jasper and carnelian. A rainbow, resembling an emerald, encircled the throne. 4 Surrounding the throne were twenty-four other thrones, and seated on them were twenty-four elders. They were dressed in white and had crowns of gold on their heads. 5 From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings and peals of thunder. Before the throne, seven lamps were blazing. These are the seven spirits of God. 6 Also before the throne there was what looked like a sea of glass, clear as crystal. In the center, around the throne, were four living creatures, and they were covered with eyes, in front and in back. 7 The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like an ox, the third had a face like a man, the fourth was like a flying eagle. 8 Each of the four living creatures had six wings and was covered with eyes all around, even under his wings. Day and night they never stop saying: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come." 9 Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor and thanks to him who sits on the throne and who lives for ever and ever, 10 the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives for ever and ever. They lay their crowns before the throne and say: 11 "You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being." Revelation 5:13 "To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honor and glory and power, for ever and ever!"

Irvin, 2013-10-31 The main objective of this writing is to produce a story of my experience as a Christian without being overly theological. It is an endeavor to understand my cultural relationships from a Christian cultural perspective. Many profound friends, teachers and pastors have been an immeasurable help and source of strength along the journey. Ministry is not for the faint of heart. His Word says, "All men" are made in His image. That includes the sinner that has not yet been delivered into salvation. I give Him glory and take no credit of my own. This is my story replete with laughter, tragedy, shortcomings, and victories. This book is not meant to harm, notify or crucify any certain denomination, religious belief, or non-belief. Some of the names of churches and people in this book are fictional and are the compilation of many beloved relationships with no specific reference to an individual or denomination, while at other times direct reference is added to substantiate the material in this book.
