Yes, it wasn't easy because of life changes, job changes, bad relationship breakups, moving several years ago, and also a lot of distractions and emotional pain. I was torn up inside and out after my mother passed on January 16, 2020. I wasn't myself, wasn't going out, was distant from my family and just couldn't write for three years. 17 months later, my father died on June 6, 2021, then my favorite Aunt named Mary in July 2021. My family and I were devastated, and I lost my writing skills, and I just didn't feel like writing for a long time. Suddenly, in 2023, my life turned around and gave me a new realization to get back on track, so I did and used this sad experience as my motivation and inspiration to finally finish this long, awaited book of gospel lyrics that I promised to write over five and a half years ago. I am thankful and very proud of myself for not giving up, and I am carrying out this long overdue promise to God. Someone say, AMEN! I am also more at ease, more organized, and I spend time with my children and other family members. This new book release reflects a lot of my gospel songs that I wrote over the last five years, and I decided to put them all together, showcasing my lyrical talent, my life changes, and my continuous belief in God. For those of you who continue to dream as I do, don't stop because you don't know when your dream will finally come true! Amen!

lights will guide you home lyrics: Just Behind the Door Mary Leiker, 2012-04-17 The author explains how May 16th, 1999 changed her life forever. She experienced the loss of two high school seniors and that evening the call came through to tell her that her son, in Colorado, had also been killed. Her first born, with his bigger than life personality was gone. The words surreal and gut wrenching were her constant companions. Exactly six months later, her Mom had one heart pain, went into a coma and died. She had frequently told her, "Mary when the last leaf is gone from that tree, I will be leaving." She gave her the gift of time to emotionally survive her son's death. Mary shares with you the recorded messages she has received for over a decade from her family, on the other side, to give you hope. Through her experiences, you will know that unconditional love and connection continue to exist when you believe in the possibility. Our loved ones do not disappear into the cosmos after their death. Their energy remains around us forever. You can reconnect with your loved ones, as she has, and achieve peace and assurance that, as her son has repeatedly told her, "Mom, all is as it should be."

lights will guide you home lyrics: The Art of the Peeve Bruce H. Weik, 2016-06-25 The Art of the Peeve has been in the making for twenty years. For sixteen of those years, they appeared as a column in The Zephyr, a paper located in Galesburg, Illinois. The last four years, they have appeared in the blog site thepeeve.com. These are the best of the thousands that were written. The book lists the peevies as they appeared each year over that twenty-year span. In addition, each year starts off with a creative nonfiction story that is primarily memoir, personal, meditative, or lyrical. The peevies cover a lot of territory. They are provocative, stimulating, and full of spiritual, psychological, and political commentary using satire, humor, and often laced with a good bit of baloney. They are designed to encourage discussion and challenge the belief system most of us inherit from our parents. They are not meant to demean any person, although at times the author skirts right on the edge of making fun of a particular person. Sorry, but the whole purpose is to peeve you. A lot of the peevs express feelings about things that many people have a hard time talking about. The author has no such problems. Straightforward, unapologetic, and with no remorse, the peevs drive home the other side of most stories. This is not a book for those favoring the status quo or for the faint of heart.
