To effectively label each stanza with the following plot events in "The Raven," it is essential first to identify the poem's overarching narrative arc. The poem unfolds in a single setting, primarily within the narrator's chamber, progressing through stages of curiosity, hope, dread, and despair. Each stanza thus serves as a narrative beat, advancing the psychological state of the protagonist and revealing layers of meaning.

Stanza 1: Introduction to the Setting and Mood

The poem opens with the narrator in a state of melancholic reverie, lamenting the loss of his beloved Lenore. The first stanza introduces the late-night
